

Closing Remarks

Over the past 20 years I myself have learned a lot from the participants. Through these meetings I was able to continue friendship with my previous students, postdocs, and collaborators. I also identified people to newly collaborate with. I hope this workshop played the same role to everyone who has joined this meeting. So I'd like to thank all the more-than-1000 participants during the past 20 years. And I look forward to having you again two years from now to have more interactions and more fun! Farewell!
